2011 MEDIA GUIDE • MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press credentials should be made to the BGSU Athletic Communications Office, addressed to the attention of Dave Meyer. Requests should be made at least one week in advance. Late requests will be honored if space is available, but parking cannot be guaranteed for requests less than one week in advance. Scouts and non-working media will be seated if space is available.

WEEKLY INFORMATION

Media members can access BGSU information via the internet at BGSUFalcons.com. Weekly game notes and statistics will be updated regularly. A PDF version of releases and statistics can be e-mailed to those outlets which would prefer to receive this information on a regular basis. Please notify Dave Meyer if you would like to be put on our primary media e-mail list.

MAC TELECONFERENCE

Coach Clawson will be available each Monday during the regular season on the weekly MAC Teleconference (10:48-10:56 a.m., Eastern). To join this MAC Teleconference please contact the MAC at 216-466-5622 and ask for Ken Mather.

WEEKLY PRESSER

Coach Dave Clawson will hold a weekly media press conference each Wednesday at 1 p.m. in the Wilcox Board Room on the third floor of the Sebo Athletic Center. All members of the media are welcome to attend. Out-of-town media should contact Dave Meyer to schedule a phone interview with Coach Clawson or players at least one day in advance. All phone interviews need to be completed by Wednesday evening. Audio and video of each weekly press conference will be available at bgsufalcons.com by Wednesday afternoon.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All interviews with members of the team should be conducted at Coach Clawson's Wednesday media press conference. Players will be made available at 1 p.m. to those in attendance. Please allow at least 24 hours to set up interviews with players. Arrangements will be made for telephone and in-person interviews at a time that is mutually agreeable to the reporter/broadcaster and the athlete, should there be a schedule conflict.

PARKING

A special media parking lot is located adjacent to Doyt Perry Stadium, near the southwest corner of the stadium. Access to the media lot is by Alumni Drive which connects Mercer Road (near the Alumni Center) and Wooster Street (near the Information Booth). Admission to the media lot is restricted to people holding the correct credential acquired from the athletic communications office. All media members are asked to enter the stadium through the press gate (Gate 2) at the southwest corner of the stadium.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

At Home: Coach Clawson and BGSU players will be available for post-game interviews in the Sentinel-Tribune Room located between the two locker rooms, following the normal cooling-off period. BGSU observes a closed locker room policy. The Sentinel-Tribune Room is on the east side of the stadium (opposite the press box), and can be entered through the tunnels at either the north or south end. On the road: Coach Clawson and requested players will be made available in a designated media room or just outside the locker room following the normal cooling-off period.

PRESS GATE

The press gate (Gate 2) at Doyt L. Perry Stadium is at the southwest corner of the stadium, a short walk from the media parking lot.

MEDIA FIELD POLICY

A general media pass will allow you access to the field during pre-game warmups and during the final five minutes of the fourth quarter only. Field access at other times will be limited to working photographers and television reporters. No interviews may be conducted on the field and any attempt to do so may lead to the loss of your media pass.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Members of the media will be provided with game programs, flip cards, current statistics and last-minute pregame notes prior to the start of the game. Statistical summaries will include play-by-play, quarter stats, halftime stats, complete team and individual stats and tackles. The BGSU Press Box does have a wireless internet connection for all members of the media.

RADIO & TELEVISION

Requests for permission to broadcast must be made in writing. Space will be made available for the official visiting radio station and student radio station on request. There is space in each booth for four persons. Phone lines can be ordered through Dave Meyer. Anyone wishing to televise a game from Doyt L. Perry Stadium should contact the athletic communications office at least ONE MONTH prior to the game, and preferably before the start of the season.

Falcon Sports Radio Network

WFRO 99.1 FM enters its second year as the flagship station for Bowling Green athletics beginning in the 2010-11 season.

Todd Walker (left) begins his ninth season as the “Voice of the Falcons” while John Gibson (right) returns to the radio booth for his sixth year, spending 2003-05 and 2009-present with the Falcon football radio team. Also entering his sixth season with the broadcast team is engineer Dave Morris, and BGSU alum Dave DeNatale returns for his third year running Falcon Central.

“The Falcon Sports Network has found a tremendous home in BAS Broadcasting and WFRO,” said Cal Bowers, general manager for Falcon Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports and the multimedia rights holder for BGSU Athletics.

“We look forward to growing our sports network through them as well as aggressively adding affiliates in and around the state of Ohio.”

Under the terms of the five-year agreement, WFRO Eagle 99 will carry all football and men’s basketball games, as well as the live Falcons Nest Coaches Show, which airs on Monday nights from Fricker’s in Bowling Green. Additionally, all radio broadcasts are available on the Web at the official home of Bowling Green athletics, www.bgsufalcons.com.

“This is exciting news for Falcon fans and radio listeners,” Jim Lorenzen and Tom Klein, owners of BAS Broadcasting, said. “We are delighted to continue this relationship with BGSU. It is positive in all aspects for all parties involved, including the many loyal listeners and supporters of Eagle 99.”

In addition to Bowling Green State University, Learfield Sports manages multimedia rights for more than 50 collegiate institutions and associations and titles the Learfield Sports Directors’ Cup. The company also manages marketing partnerships for the Black Coaches & Administrators (BCA) and provides exclusive sports programming to more than 1,000 radio stations throughout the country. The Sebo Athletic Center houses the 9,300 square foot weight room where all 18 of the Falcons' varsity sports train to enhance their athletic ability. Through the hundreds of tools, machines, and other resources that the weight room provides, the BGSU Strength and Conditioning program is able to design and implement safe, progressive and comprehensive programs for each and every student-athlete.

Over 50 state-of-the-art machines allow an extensive variety of equipment to choose from; which includes machines designed by Pendulum ©, PowerLift ©, Hammer© and Nautlius © strength training equipment.

Six fully functional PowerLift © Power Racks, numerous free weight tools, multiple variations of grip training equipment, and several bodyweight training tools give student-athletes an opportunity to work with various modes of strength training.

FALCONS GIVE BACK

2011 SEASON OUTLOOK

2011 OUTLOOK • POSITION BREAKDOWN

FALCONS POISED TO RETURN TO FORM IN CLAWSON'S THIRD YEAR

The Bowling Green State University football team finished 2010 with a 2-10 overall and 1-7 MAC record, after finishing the 2009 campaign at 7-6 overall and advancing to the Humanitarian Bowl. While 2010 was a disappointing season, third-year head coach Dave Clawson, combined with the return of 12 starters, 66 players with at least three years of eligibility remaining and all but one of his assistant coaches from 2010, gives the Falcons a foundation to build upon for years to come.

On the offensive side of the ball, the Falcons return six starters (only two will be seniors in 2011), led by sophomore quarterback Matt Schilz, who started 10 games as a freshman, and threw for 2,223 yards and eight touchdowns. His top game of 2010 may have been at Temple where he threw for 287 yards and a touchdown, nearly leading the Falcons back from 14 points down in the fourth quarter.

Schilz' top offensive target in 2010 was Kamar Jorden, who finished the season with 96 catches for 1,109 yards and four touchdowns. He was also the lone Falcon to earn first-team All-MAC honors.

Much was made of the offensive line struggles from a year ago, mainly due to several new faces and players playing out of position for much of 2010. Four starters return, led by senior center Ben Bojicic. Bojicic is a three-time Rimington Award preseason team member (nation's top center). The 2010 captain will also have Chip Robinson, Jordan Roussos and Dominic Flewellyn returning for 2011.

Defensively, the Falcons will also return six starters (four will be seniors in 2011) with a pair of defensive linemen, one linebacker and three members of the secondary. Up front BGSU will feature Chris Jones (third-team All-MAC), who was named the National Defensive Lineman of the Week after recording six tackles and 3.5 sacks in a win at Central Michigan.

Linebacker Dwayne Woods, a second-team All-MAC member, finished 2010 with 134 tackles (led MAC) and in the backend the Falcons will feature Cameron Truss, Keith Morgan and Jovan Leacock. Those three seniors will be joined by a handful of youngsters in Jude Adjei-Barimah (r-Fr.), Justin Ford (r-Fr.), Aaron Foster (So.), Booboo Gates (So.), DeVon McKoy (r-Fr.) and Ryland Ward (r-Fr.).

Scouting the Falcons

Quarterbacks

Lettermen Returning: 2, Lettermen Lost: 1

Starters Returning: 1, Starters Lost: 0

Matt Schilz will begin camp as the Falcons' starter after throwing for 2,223 yards and eight touchdowns in 2010. He had seven 200-yard games in his first year as a starter, throwing for a career-best 287 yards in a near come-from-behind win at Temple. Redshirt freshman Trent Hurley found himself on the two-deep in the second half of 2010 and is expected to push Schilz for playing time in 2011.

Running Backs

Lettermen Returning: 3, Lettermen Lost: 1

Starters Returning: 0, Starters Lost: 1

Willie Geter, who finished his career in 2010 and ended that same career in the top-10 in rushing yards in school history, is gone, but what returns is still a handful of talented tailbacks. Jordan Hopgood is the top returner after finishing 2010 with 167 rushing yards and six touchdowns. He was also a factor in the passing game, recording 10 catches for 60 yards. Errique Geiger and John Pettigrew return for their third year and redshirt freshman Jamel Martin is also expected to make an impact this season.

Local product Zach Akenberger (FB) will return for his fourth year with the Falcons and is hopeful to return to form after suffering a broken leg last season.

Wide Receivers

Lettermen Returning: 6, Lettermen Lost: 2

Starters Returning: 1, Starters Lost: 2

Last season everyone was asking "How do you replace Freddie Barnes?" The answer: Kamar Jorden. The now fifth-year senior recorded 96 catches for 1,109 yards and four touchdowns in his first year playing as a Falcon. His 96 catches were the third-most in school history. Jorden will be joined by a handful of seniors at the wide receiver position. Eugene Cooper (17 catches, 130 yards), Adrian Hodges (20 catches, 156 yards), Ray Hutson (2 catches, 25 yards), Justus Jones and Steven Dunlap will all be competing in their final season with the Orange and Brown.

Expect local product Shaun Joplin, along with redshirt freshmen Marcus Beaurem, Heath Jackson and Nick McKnight, to also make an impact in 2011.

Tight Ends

Lettermen Returning: 2, Lettermen Lost: 1

Starters Returning: 0, Starters Lost: 1

The tight end position will feature four Falcons that will have at least three years of eligibility remaining. Alex Bayer and Tyler Beck saw significant action last season, with Bayer leading all tight ends with 22 catches for 298 yards and one touchdown. Kendall Montgomery and Clay Rolf both redshirted last season, but are expected to compete for playing time in 2011.

Offensive Line

Lettermen Returning: 6, Lettermen Lost: 4

Starters Returning: 4, Starters Lost: 1

2010 was a tough year for the BGSU offensive line. Injuries and position changes caused the entire unit to suffer throughout the year. In 2011 the Falcons will feature four returning starters, led by senior center Ben Bojicic, who is a three-time preseason member to the Rimington Award list. Bojicic will be joined by Jordon Roussos, Dominic Flewellyn and Chip Robinson as returning starters. Scott Lewis, Kyle Bryant, Darion Delaney, Isaiah Byler and Jonathan Fry are also expected to compete for playing time.

Scott Hodges, Dominique Wharton and Christian Piazza, all who enrolled this past spring at BGSU, are expected to contribute in 2011.

Defensive Line

Lettermen Returning: 6, Lettermen Lost: 4

Starters Returning: 2, Starters Lost: 2

The defensive line is part strength and part mystery. In the middle the Falcons return its top four defensive tackles, led by Kevin Moore (formerly Alvarado), Chris Jones, Jairus Campbell and Ted Ouellet. Moore and Jones are each two-year starters. Darius Gilbert, who redshirted last season, is also expected to contribute in the middle in 2011.

The defensive end position on the other-hand will have to replace a pair of starters. Ronnie Goble will return from a shoulder injury and redshirt freshmen Bryan Thomas and Charlie Walker are expected to compete for each of the starting positions.

Linebackers

Lettermen Returning: 6, Lettermen Lost: 3

Starters Returning: 1, Starters Lost: 1

While Champ Fells graduated at the end of 2010, the Falcons still have a handful of linebackers that should play a major role in the Falcons 4-2-5 defense. Its top returner, junior Dwayne Woods (second-team All-MAC), was one of the top tacklers in the nation, recording 134 stops in 12 games. Paul Swan (28 tackles, 2.5 TFL) is the only other returning linebacker that saw time in 2010, but expect D.J. Lynch, Gabe Martin, Jason Rice and Eric Jordan to also contribute in 2011.

Defensive Backs

Lettermen Returning: 9, Lettermen Lost: 3

Starters Returning: 4, Starters Lost: 1

The Falcons will be returning three starters to the 2011 secondary, with just Calvin Marshall to replace, who started 11 games at the rover position. Starting cornerback Cameron Truss returns. Adrien Spencer and Aunre' Davis saw time last season due to injuries in the secondary and are expected to compete for playing time in 2011.

Booboo Gates and Keith Morgan are expected to compete for the starting Rover position. Junior Tim Moore is expected to compete for playing time as well.

On the back-end the Falcons will return Jovan Leacock. Leacock was second on the team with 91 tackles.

Austin Collier, Jude Adjei-Barimah, Aaron Foster, Justin Ford, DeVon McCoy and Ryland Ward are also expected to make an impact this season, making the position the Falcons' deepest in 2011.

Special Teams

Lettermen Returning: 4, Lettermen Lost: 2

Starters Returning: 1, Starters Lost: 2

The Falcons will feature many new faces on special teams in 2011. Second-team All-MAC punter Bryan Wright is gone and the kicking duties are a wide open race.

Kyle Burkhardt, Matt Oczypok, Stephen Stein and freshman Tyler Tate are expected to battle it out for the 2011 kicking duties.

The punting duties will be a battle between junior Jerry Phillips and Brian Schmeidebusch. Schmeidebusch was the punter for the University of Findlay in 2009, where he averaged 42.1 yards/punt.

Dave Clawson

Head Coach, Third Season

Williams College-Massachusetts, 1989

Dave Clawson became the 17th head football coach at Bowling Green State University on Dec. 12, 2008 and enters his third year at the helm of the Falcon Football program.

Clawson brings 22 years of coaching experience, including 11 years of head coaching experience, most recently at Richmond (2004-07) and Fordham (1999-2003), where he combined for a 58-49 record. In 2007 he led the Richmond Spiders to the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision semifinals.

Clawson twice has been named national Division I-AA Coach of the Year, winning once at Fordham and once at Richmond, and was named his league's coach of the year four times in a seven-year span. In 2005 and 2007, the Richmond Touchdown Club selected him College Coach of the Year, and he was an Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award Finalist in 2002 and 2005.

In his first year at BGSU he led the Falcons to a 7-6 record and an appearance in the Humanitarian Bowl. He helped direct an offense that featured Biletnikoff Award finalist Freddie Barnes to a nation's best 155 receptions (NCAA record), while also earning first-team All-MAC honors. Clawson continued that trend in 2010, helping Kamar Jordan lead the conference with 96 catches, also earning first-team All-MAC accolades. The 251 receptions by Barnes and Jordan are the most in the country by different receivers in the past two seasons.

Clawson Honors

- 2007 CAA Coach of the Year
- 2005 & 2007 Virginia Sports Information Directors Association Division-I Commonwealth Coach of the Year
- 2005 I-AA.org National Coach of the Year
- 2005 Atlantic-10 Coach of the Year
- 2002 & 2005 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Finalist
- 2002 Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly I-AA National Coach of the Year
- 2002 Patriot League Coach of the Year
- 2001 Patriot League co-Coach of the Year

Prior to BGSU, his two head coaching jobs resurrected first Fordham, boosting a Rams program coming off 12 straight losing seasons into NCAA playoff participants, and then Richmond, which twice advanced to the post-season. Before that, Clawson called the offensive plays for another pair of Division I-AA powerhouses in Lehigh and Villanova.

Quarterback development and pro production have been Clawson staples. Nine times in his 16 years as either an offensive coordinator or head coach, Clawson's quarterbacks earned all-conference honors, including BGSU's Tyler Sheehan, who threw for a school record 4,051 yards in 2009.

In addition, NFL regulars such as two-time 1,000-yard rusher Brian Westbrook (Eagles), receiver Brian Finneran (Falcons), tailbacks Rabih Abdullah (Buccaneers, Bears and Patriots) and Tim Hightower (Cardinals), quarterbacks Stacey Tutt (Jets) and Kevin Eakin (Bills), and defensive lineman Aki Jones (Redskins), played for Clawson.

2011 OUTLOOK • COACHING STAFF

In 1998 he accepted the head coaching position at Fordham, where he became the youngest Division I head coach in the nation (31). His 19 combined victories during his final two years (2002-03) at Fordham were the most wins there in back-to-back seasons since 1918-19.

Then he guided Richmond to the biggest two-year turnaround in Spider football's 124-year history, improving from 3-8 his first season of 2004 to 9-4 and an NCAA playoff berth the following year.

A native of Youngstown, N.Y., located on the shores of Lake Ontario just 30 minutes north of Buffalo, Clawson played defensive back in football and also basketball at Williams College in Massachusetts. He graduated in 1989, and then began a two-year assistant coaching stop at Albany. From there, he coached two years at Buffalo and three at Lehigh, including his first two years, 1994-95, as an offensive coordinator.

Clawson then was named offensive coordinator at Villanova, where he helped establish 70 school records and led the Wildcats to the I-AA playoffs in 1996 and 1997. Under Clawson's tutelage, receiver Brian Finneran won the Walter Payton Award, given to I-AA's most outstanding player, and running back Brian Westbrook became the first student-athlete in NCAA history to gain more than 1,000 yards rushing and 1,000 yards receiving in a season.

Clawson and his wife, Catherine, are the parents of two children, Courtney and Eric.

Warren Ruggiero

Offensive Coordinator/QBs, Third Season
Delaware, 1988

Warren Ruggiero begins his third year as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Bowling Green State University.

In his first year at the helm of the Falcon offense he led a unit that ranked first in the MAC and sixth nationally in passing yards per game (316.2). Stand-out quarterback Tyler Sheehan finished the year completing 373 of 575 passes for 4,051 yards and 27 touchdowns, all career-bests under the guidance of Ruggiero. In fact, his 4,051 passing yards were only the second time in BGSU's 90-year history that a Falcon quarterback had surpassed the 4,000 yard wide receiver Marques Colston, who was named to the NFL All-Rookie Team that next season.

Ruggiero brings 22 years of coaching experience to the Falcons, including two as a head coach and 17 years as an offensive coordinator at some of the best offenses in the country. Under his guidance as a coordinator his offenses have finished in the top-10 statistically on 11 different occasions.

Prior to his time at Kansas State, Ruggiero was already an accomplished offensive coach who spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Elon, where he tutored quarterback Scott Riddle, who was dubbed the 2007 College Sporting News National Freshman of the Year after a monstrous rookie campaign.

Prior to his arrival at Elon, Ruggiero spent the previous six years at Hofstra, serving the first two seasons (2000-01) as the recruiting coordinator/quarterbacks coach and the last four (2002-05) as the offensive coordinator.

Previously, he coached the halfbacks and tight ends at The College of William and Mary during the 1999 campaign.

Prior to going to William & Mary, Ruggiero was the head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Glenville State College for two seasons (1997-98); the quarterbacks coach, running backs coach and offensive coordinator at Clarion University of Pennsylvania for three seasons (1994-96) and a graduate assistant at the University of Delaware for the 1988 campaign.

Ruggiero and his wife, Jennifer, have one daughter, Emma.

plateau.

Ruggiero also played a large role in helping wide receiver Freddie Barnes earn national honors, being named a Biletnikoff finalist, given to the country's top wide receiver. In 2009 alone Barnes led the country in receptions (155) and touchdowns (19), while ranking second in yards (1,770). Barnes' 155 catches smashed the previous NCAA mark for catches in a season, previously held by Manny Hazzard (Houston) since 1989.

In 2010 Ruggiero took an offense that featured a first-year starting quarterback, along with a total of eight new starters and still produced an offense that averaged 21.2 points per game. He also helped Kamar Jorden earn first-team All-MAC status after leading the conference with 96 catches.

Ruggiero has Northwest Ohio ties, having served as the running backs coach, quarterbacks coach, offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator for Defiance for five seasons (1989-93).

Ruggiero spent the 2008 season as the quarterbacks coach at Kansas State where he helped lead the Wildcat signal callers to a combined 59-percent completion percentage, 3,235 yards and 20 scores. The KSU quarterbacks also threw just 10 interceptions in 425 passes. As good as the KSU quarterbacks were at throwing the ball, they also added 464 yards and 15 scores on the ground, helping the Kansas State offense to an average of 34.9 points and 402.1 yards per game.

Ruggiero spent one season coaching quarterback Josh Freeman, who declared early for the 2009 NFL draft. Freeman was selected with the 17th pick in the draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

It wasn't be the first time Ruggiero helped coach a player to the NFL. In 2005 he coached future New Orleans Saints

Mike Elko

Defensive Coordinator/ILBs, Third Season
Pennsylvania, 1999

Mike Elko begins his third year as the defensive coordinator with the Falcons after holding the same position at Hofstra from 2006-08.

In his first year with the Falcon defense he took eight first-year starters and transformed them into a unit that forced 12 turnovers in the last three regular season games in 2009. Elko's defense was also tops in the MAC on third downs, allowing a success rate of just 36.5 percent.

Elko's defense continued the turnover trend in 2010, forcing 29, the second-most in the conference and fifth-most in the nation. Elko also helped mold linebacker Dwayne Woods into an all-conference performer, as the then sophomore led the Mid-American Conference with 134 tackles, earning second-team all-MAC honors.

Elko has seven years of defensive coordinating experience under his belt, as well as experience working with BGSU head coach Dave Clawson at Fordham and Richmond.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Elko coached the No. 1 passing defense in the Colonial Athletic Association with Hofstra, holding teams to just 136.8 yards per game through the air.

Hofstra's defense ranked first in the CAA and 11th in the FCS in rushing defense, second in the conference and 15th in the country in total defense, and fourth in the CAA and 37th in the FCS in scoring defense in 2007.

In 2006 Elko directed the defensive backs in addition to his defensive coordinator duties. The Pride's defense ranked in the top half of the conference in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and passing defense.

Elko came to Hofstra after two seasons as linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at the University of Richmond. His first recruiting class at Richmond was a large part of the Spiders' 9-4 record, including a 7-1 slate in the Atlantic 10 in 2005. Richmond defeated Hampton, 38-10, in the first round of the I-AA playoffs before dropping a 24-20 decision at Furman.

The Spiders ranked 12th in the FCS in scoring defense, allowing just 17.7 points per game, and 22nd in rushing defense, allowing just 120.1 yards per contest. Before coaching at Richmond, Elko worked with current head football coach Dave Clawson at Fordham University as his linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator in 2002 and 2003. While at Fordham, Elko coached a defense that led the Patriot League in scoring defense (14th nationally in 2002) and sacks, as well as ranking third with 25 turnovers caused in 2002. In 2003 the Rams led the league in pass defense.

Elko's coaching experience also includes time at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, where he served as defensive coordinator. He also coached at his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, directing the secondary. He began his coaching career at Stony Brook in 1999 where he guided the linebackers in the fall and the defensive backs in the spring.

A member of the Penn football team for four years, Elko helped the Quakers win the Ivy League title in 1998. He received a bachelor's degree in history in 1999.

Mike and his wife Michelle, have three children, Michael, Andrew and Kaitlyn.

John Hunter

Running Backs/Recruiting, Sixth Season
Bowling Green, 1988

John Hunter will begin his sixth year on the Falcon coaching staff, serving as the team's running backs coach, and is in his third year as the recruiting coordinator for the Orange and Brown.

Hunter molded Willie Geter into a third-team All-MAC performer as a senior in 2010, and helped him finish his career with 2,156 rushing yards, eighth-most in school history.

Hunter helped coach a pair of running backs in Geter and Chris Bullock to combine for 1,027 yards and 13 touchdowns in 2009. The running back position in BGSU's offensive scheme is also asked to pass block regularly, a unit that allowed just 27 sacks (2.1/game) despite throwing the ball more than any other team in the MAC.

Despite constant injuries in the backfield, Hunter helped coach a quartet of tailbacks to average 4.93 yards per carry in 2008, finishing the season with 1,192 yards and nine touchdowns.

In 2007, Hunter's running backs recorded 1,607 yards on the ground, led by former quarterback Anthony Turner (519). True freshman Willie Geter chipped in with 432 yards and Chris Bullock had 281.

In 2006, he saw the Falcons lead the MAC, averaging 176.6 yards per game, and oversaw the development of freshman All-American Chris Bullock.

From 2000 to 2006, Hunter served as the head football and boys track and field coach at Pershing High School in Detroit. On the gridiron, his teams were 40-28 and made four state playoff appearances in his six years after the school had made just one state playoff appearances in its history prior to his arrival. He led Pershing to two district titles, two regional championship games and one Detroit P.S.L. playoff nod.

Hunter, who graduated from BGSU in 1988, was a four-year starter at line-backer and twice was named first-team All-MAC (1986 and 1987). For his career, he had 336 tackles, including 44 for loss, and was a member of a 1985 MAC Championship team. Following his senior year, he signed a free agent contract with the San Francisco 49ers. Prior to his stint at Pershing High School, Hunter was an assistant coach at St. Martin DePorres in 1989 and from 1994-99. He was the defensive backs coach for a team which won the state championship in 1989 and was defensive coordinator from 1994-99, also winning state titles in 1995 and 1996. As a player, he also played on state title teams at DePorres in 1981 and 1982.

A native of Detroit, he and his wife, Amara, have a son, John and a daughter, Justice.

Adam Scheier

Special Teams/TEs, Third Season
Dartmouth, 1995

Adam Scheier begins his third year with Bowling Green State University. He will coach the special teams and tight ends for the Orange and Brown.

Last season the Falcons' special teams units returned three kicks for scores, including a pair of punt returns by Eugene Cooper, who earned second-team All-MAC for his efforts. As a unit, the Falcons ranked second in the MAC with an 11.1 yard punt return average. Freshman Boo Boo Gates added a 75-yard kick return for a score versus Kent State. Scheier's special teams units made impact plays in 2009 as well, blocking four punts, including a pair versus Toledo in a 38-24 win.

Scheier, who also coaches tight ends at Bowling Green, has helped produce Jimmy Scheidler, a second-team All-MAC performer in 2009 and a Phil Steele Fourth-Team member in Alex Bayer, who earned the honor as a freshman.

Prior to his time at BGSU, Scheier spent seven seasons overseeing the special teams units at Lehigh, was also responsible for the wide receivers position for four years, in an offensive system much like Coach Clawson implemented for the Falcons. Scheier also spent three seasons as Lehigh's running backs coach.

In 2008, the Lehigh wide receivers finished with the top two spots on the team's reception list, led by Mike Fitzgerald, who had 51 catches, including 11 touchdowns.

In 2007, the Mountain Hawk receivers helped Lehigh average over 200 receiving yards per game, while seven players hauled in a touchdown reception, and seven different receivers caught at least ten passes. 2005's receiving corps – under the direction of Scheier for the first time – was one of Lehigh's best in recent memory. Four players amassed over 300 receiving yards, and 11 different players caught a touchdown pass.

The special teams units were consistently productive under the direction of Scheier. In 2008, kicker Jason Leo connected on 8-of-13 field goal attempts, while averaging 43.0 yards per punt. Lehigh's punt unit finished both the 2008 and 2007 seasons ranked third in the nation in net punting. During his career, Leo became one of 10 football players in league history to earn four consecutive all-league honors. Leo's recognition marked the ninth straight year as a special teams coordinator that Scheier has mentored a kicker or punter to all-league status, a group that includes three All-American nods. In addition, Lehigh's kickoff return unit led the league and ranked in the top 15 nationally three times in the last four years and Scheier coached punt return units to top 15 finishes three times in his years as a coordinator.

Scheier came to Lehigh after spending two years at Princeton as the special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach. Prior to his stint at Princeton, Scheier spent three years as an assistant at Columbia, coaching the strong safeties and outside linebackers. He began his coaching career at Dartmouth, assisting with the secondary in 1996 after earning four varsity letters as a free safety for the Big Green and being awarded the special teams player of the year award as a senior.

Scheier earned a bachelors degree in psychology at Dartmouth and a masters in education at Columbia. Scheier and his wife Erica have three daughters, Callie, Riley, and Madeline, and one son, Brady.

Mark Carney

Wide Receivers, Third Season
Fordham, 2002

Mark Carney will begin his third year as the wide receivers coach at Bowling Green.

Carney is making it a habit of producing first-team All-MAC performers, as well as wide receivers that put up numbers that are comparable to anyone in the nation.

In his first year with the Orange and Brown, he helped coach Freddie Barnes, a Biletnikoff Award finalist to national recognition. Barnes, who would appear on ESPN's First Take, the Dan Patrick Show and handled many other interviews, led the country in receptions (155) and touchdowns (16), while finishing second in the nation in yards (1,770).

This past season he followed up the Barnes extravaganza with a new Falcon, Kamar Jorden. In his first year with the Orange and Brown, Jorden led the conference with 96 catches and finished the year with 1,109 yards and four touchdowns. The catches and yards ranked third in school history. In a two-year span the Falcons' top wideout has combined for 251 catches, most among any duo in the country in that span.

Carney, a native of Cleveland, Ohio, brings several years of Ohio recruiting experience to the Orange and Brown. The third year Falcon coach also helped mentor a former Richmond quarterback to NFL status and played under Dave Clawson at Fordham, earning all-league honors as a quarterback in 2001.

In 2008 Carney coached wide receivers at Richmond, where he helped the Spiders to the FCS National Championship. Under Carney's teaching, Kevin Grayson led the team with 61 receptions and 853 yards. It was Carney's first year coaching the wide receiver position. He spent the previous four years as the Spiders' quarterback coach.

As the coach for the Spider signal callers, Carney oversaw the development of former Spiders Stacy Tutt and Eric Ward into two of the most productive quarterbacks in school history.

Ward finished his sophomore season with a single-season school record 216 completions for 2,341 passing yards -- the fourth-best single-season mark by a quarterback, surpassing the 2,219 yards thrown by Tutt in 2005.

Tutt was a free-agent signee by the New York Jets in the spring of 2006 and graduated from Richmond as the school's all-time single-season leader in total offense with 3,047 yards (828 rushing, 2,219 passing) and 12 touchdowns.

A standout quarterback who earned All-Patriot League and All-American honors in 2001, Carney spent 2002 and 2003 working with current BGSU head coach Dave Clawson at Carney's alma mater, Fordham. While with the Rams, Carney helped guide Kevin Eakin, a program record-holder, to all-conference honors his final two seasons. Eakin went on to play professionally in the NFL for the N.Y. Jets and Buffalo Bills and for Hamilton in the CFL.

Stan Watson

Outside Linebackers, Third Season
Mt. Union, 2003

Stan Watson begins his third year with the BGSU football program, but his first as the coach of the outside linebackers. He spent the past two seasons coaching cornerbacks.

This past season Watson broke in two new starters at the cornerback position in Cameron Truss and Aunre' Davis. Truss made eight starts, finishing the year with two interceptions and a team-high seven pass breakups. Davis, who filled in for Truss at times, recovered a fumble in his first career start.

In 2009 Watson led an inexperienced cornerback group that helped the Falcon pass defense rank fourth in the MAC, allowing just 204.0 yards per game through the air. Cornerback Roger Williams lead the team in interceptions with four, while Adrien Spencer returned an interception 64 yards for a touchdown in his first career start.

As a graduate assistant Watson's duties included helping with the coaching of the Falcon secondary, where BGSU finished 24th in the country and second in the MAC in passing yards allowed.

Prior to his coaching career, Watson attended Mt. Union College, where his team won the National Championship in four of his five years (1998, 2000, 2001, 2002) in which he was enrolled at the school. He was a three-time all-conference first-team selection at outside linebacker, earning All-American status in 2002 by the Football Gazette and Hewlett Packard.

Watson and his wife Stephanie have two children, Addison and Ross.

Prior to arriving at Bowling Green, Watson spent three years at Emory and Henry College, where he was the defensive coordinator for all three years. He was also responsible for the secondary in 2007 and the linebackers in 2005-2006.

Watson also coached at Mt. Union, his Alma Mater. In 2003 he coached the linebackers and a year later he was responsible for the defensive line.

Bill Durkin

Offensive Line, Second Season

Bill Durkin begins his second year coaching the offensive line at Bowling Green.

Durkin had his hands full in 2010 with an offensive line that graduated three starters from the previous year and a unit that suffered many key injuries throughout 2010. Durkin helped mentor Jordon Roussos into a starting right tackle after beginning 2010 along the defensive line. He also turned true freshman Dominic Flewellyn into an every day starter.

Durkin brings 14 years of experience coaching the offensive line to Bowling Green, most recently at Hofstra, where he served as the offensive line coach and running game coordinator for the past two seasons for the Pride. He added assistant head coach to his title in 2009.

Prior to his time at Hofstra he spent 11 seasons at the University of Richmond (four years with Clawson, 2004-07), where he was part of four conference championship teams, including a national championship in 2008.

He joined the Spiders' program in 1997 as tight ends and offensive tackles coach and coached two all-conference selections and one All-American during his three seasons in that capacity.

Durkin coached Richmond running backs from 2000 through the 2003 season before assuming the role of offensive line coach from 2004 through 2007. He added the run game coordinator title in 2007 as well.

The Spiders broke school records for rushing offense, total offense, total points scored, and single-game total offense and rushing offense marks in 2007 as Richmond advanced to the NCAA FCS Championship semifinals. In posting their third consecutive winning season for the first time in 52 years, the Spiders set a school-record with 11 wins.

Durkin, who began his coaching career as a strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, the University of Massachusetts, in 1995 and 1996, was a four-year letterman, a two-year team captain and first team all-conference selection in 1992 and 1993, and a consensus first team All-American in 1993 at UMass. He was named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary All-Star Team.

Following graduation, he played with the New England Patriots and the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe, as well as the Shreveport Pirates and the Baltimore Stallions of the Canadian Football League.

Nick Monroe

Secondary, Second Season
St. Cloud State, 2001

Nick Monroe begins his second year with the secondary at Bowling Green State University.

In 2010 Monroe coached a secondary that featured four new starters. Monroe helped coach Jovan Leacock, who came to BGSU as a wide receiver, into a safety that finished second on the team with 91 tackles. He also had two interceptions. The secondary also featured first year starter Cameron Truss, who led the team with seven pass breakups.

Prior to his time at BGSU Monroe was the co-defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Colgate University. He spent six years on the defensive side of the ball, beginning as the outside linebackers coach before moving to the secondary in 2006.

In 2009, Colgate finished the season ranked No. 1 in total defense in the Patriot League. In his last three years as the secondary coach, Monroe had four first-team All-Patriot League selections and one second-team pick.

In 2008, cornerback Wayne Moten was named Colgate's Defensive MVP and was first-team all-league.

In 2009, strong Safety Uzi Idah was named Colgate's Defensive MVP and was first-team all-league. The same season, true freshman cornerback Demetri Diamond was named The Patriot League Rookie of the Year.

Colgate won a pair of Patriot League Championships while Monroe was there in 2005 and 2008. Both league championships earned berths to the Division 1-AA National Playoffs.

Prior to his time at Colgate, Monroe was the secondary coach for two seasons at Allegheny College, where the team won the conference championship in 2003 and earned a berth in the NCAA Division III National Playoffs.

Monroe was a four year letter-winner at St. Cloud State University and a one year starter at cornerback. He graduated from St. Cloud State in 2001 with a degree in marketing.

Larry McDaniel

Defensive Line, First Season

Larry McDaniel begins his first year as the defensive line coach at Bowling Green.

McDaniel brings 12 years of Mid-American Conference experience to Bowling Green, having spent eight seasons at Kent State (2003-10) and another four with the Cardinals of Ball State (1999-03). He also brings Midwest roots to the Orange and Brown, after graduating from Indiana University in 1993 and spending one season as a graduate assistant coach for the Hoosiers (1997).

A native of St. Louis, Mo., McDaniel earned four letters as a nose tackle at IU from 1989-92 and was one of three captains his senior season. As a sophomore, he led the team with five quarterback sacks.

McDaniel graduated from Indiana in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in business management. He was in private business for four years before joining the coaching ranks at his alma mater.

He and his wife, Arlena, have two daughters, Lauren and Shelby, and a son, Mac.

Last season with the Golden Flashes, McDaniel helped coach Roosevelt Nix to the MAC Defensive Player of the Year award, the first freshman in conference history to win the honor. Nix went on to be named first-team Freshman All-American by Sporting News, Rivals.com, Phil Steele, CollegeFootballNews.com and the Football Writers Association of America.

While Nix garnered most of the attention, the Kent State defense as a whole was one of the best in the MAC, finishing third in points allowed (22.9) and first in total yards (306.7), while recording a school record 35 sacks in 2010 (KSU had 33 sacks in 2009).

Prior to Kent State, McDaniel spent four years in a similar position at Ball State University. He coached the defensive tackles in his first two seasons at Ball State, then assumed responsibility for the entire defensive line the last two years. The Cardinals were Mid-American Conference West Division tri-champions for the 2001 season.

Before joining the BSU staff, McDaniel was an assistant coach for one season (1998) at Southwest Missouri State University, where he tutored the tight ends and was the assistant recruiting coordinator. He was a graduate assistant coach at Indiana University during the 1997 season after serving as an assistant strength coach at the school the previous summer.

Brandon Hourigan

Strength & Conditioning
First Season

The Bowling Green State University Athletics Department has announced that Brandon Hourigan has been named the new Director of Strength and Conditioning for the Falcons.

Hourigan's responsibilities will include overseeing the strength and conditioning of all 18 sports at Bowling Green and he brings vast experience with multiple sports at Virginia, Richmond and Northeastern.

Hourigan comes to BGSU after spending the past two seasons at the University of Virginia as the Head Strength and Conditioning coach. While at Virginia he was responsible for all program development for the football team.

Prior to his time at Virginia, Hourigan was the head strength and conditioning coach for football at Richmond from 2005-08, where he worked with current BGSU head football coach Dave Clawson for three seasons (2005-07). He oversaw all fitness duties for the Spiders, who won the 2008 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision title. Hourigan also worked with multiple other sports during his time at Richmond.

Prior to his appointment at Richmond, Hourigan was the assistant coordinator of speed, strength and conditioning at Northeastern University. He worked with the Huskies' football, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's hockey, volleyball, men's and women's soccer and men's and women's track and field squads.

Hourigan has also worked as an assistant strength & conditioning coach on the collegiate level at Arizona (2001) and Clemson (1998-1999). He also served as a strength & conditioning intern for the Kansas City Chiefs in the NFL in 1999.

Hourigan graduated with a bachelor of science in physical education from Plymouth State College where he was a four-year letterwinner in football. At Clemson, he completed work toward a masters of sciences in guidance and counseling.

Hourigan is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association, the United States Weight Lifting Association, and has both First Aid and CPR certification.

Hourigan and his wife, Amy, have a son, Brandon, Jr., and a daughter, Ava.

Clint Dowdle

Asst. A.D. for FB/Dir of Operations
Third Season

Clint Dowdle will begin his third season as the director of football operations at Bowling Green State University and was promoted to Asst. A.D. for football this summer.

Dowdle spent the past three seasons as Assistant to former Tennessee head coach Phillip Fulmer and assistant director of football operations. During his time at Tennessee Dowdle worked with the daily football operations en route to an SEC East Division title and a Capital One Bowl victory in 2007. He was also a part of the Vols 2006 Capital One Bowl appearance.

The Memphis native earned his business management degree in 2005 from Christian Brothers University, where he was a four-year basketball starter and three year captain. He led the team in minutes, assists and steals all four years and twice was named Academic All-Gulf South Conference. Dowdle earned his master's in sport management from Tennessee in 2007.

Dowdle captured high school All-State honors in both basketball and football at Evangelical Christian School, quarterbacking ECS to a pair of football state titles while earning Tennessee's Mr. Football award. In addition, the Memphis Commercial Appeal twice selected Dowdle to its Best of Preps list in both basketball and football and named him 2000-01 Male Athlete of the Year.

T.J. DiMuzio

Asst. Director of Football Operations
Second Season

T.J. DiMuzzio begins his first year as the Assistant Director of Football Operations/Director of Player Personnel after spending the past two seasons as a defensive graduate assistant for the Falcon football program.

Prior to joining BGSU, DiMuzzio was the wide receivers coach at Delaware, where he coached a pair of all-conference players (Kervin Michaud and Aaron Love). Love set a new school record for catches in a career at Delaware.

In 2007 he coached running backs at the same school where Omar Cuff earned All-American status and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award. That same season Delaware advanced to the National Championship game with the help of quarterback Joe Flacco (17th overall draft pick by the Baltimore Ravens). DiMuzzio was in charge of NFL relations that same season.

DiMuzzio, a 2006 graduate of Delaware, played on the 2003 National Championship team and the 2004 A-10 Conference Championship squad.

OPPONENT INFORMATION • MAC

Since its inception in 1946, the Mid-American Conference has progressively grown and developed into one of the most aggressive Division I conferences in the country. One of only 11 football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) conferences, the MAC named Dr. Jon Steinbrecher as its eighth commissioner in the 63-year history of the league this past March. Steinbrecher came to the MAC after serving for six years as the commissioner of the Ohio Valley Conference.

The league has grown its commitment to championships by expanding to six its number of neutral site post season events – football (Detroit's Ford Field), volleyball (Toledo's SeaGate Centre), men's and women's basketball (Cleveland's Quicken Loans Arena), softball (Akron's Firestone Stadium) and most recently baseball (Chillicothe's VA Memorial Stadium).

The MAC tied a league record in 2008 with five schools participating in bowl games – Buffalo (International); Ball State (GMAC); Central Michigan (Motor City); Western Michigan (Texas); and Northern Illinois (Independence Bowl). The 2008 season also saw the first MAC football team ranked in the Top 25 since 2003. Ball State was ranked as high as 12th in the BCS Standings, 12th in the AP and 13th in the USA Today Poll. The Cardinals were ranked in all three polls for 10 straight weeks. MAC football teams won a league record four games versus opponents from the Big Ten.

Toledo became the first MAC team to ever beat Michigan in Ann Arbor; Ball State won its first-ever game against a Big Ten foe when the Cardinals beat Indiana; Central Michigan also defeated Indiana; and Western Michigan beat Illinois in a game played at Ford Field.

In its partnership with ESPN, the MAC signed an eight-year rights agreement through the 2016-2017 academic year for football, as well as men's and women's basketball. The deal will be the most extensive in the 63-year history of the conference. The new deal calls for a minimum of 25 events annually to be produced and aired on an ESPN platform including the men's and women's basketball championships, a regular-season MAC presence on ESPN, the Marathon MAC Football Championship and a minimum of 11 regular-season football games.

Women's athletics shined for the MAC this past year. For the first time in the history of the conference the MAC sent three teams to the NCAA women's volleyball tournament (Miami, Ohio and Western Michigan). Western Michigan became only the third team to make it to the Sweet Sixteen (Ohio 2005 and Western Michigan 1983). In women's basketball MAC Tournament Champion Ball State upset perennial national power Tennessee in the first round of the NCAA tournament handing the Lady Vols their first ever loss in the opening round of the NCAA tournament. The victory was named "Pontiac Game Changing Performance" of the 2009 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament, while first year head coach Kelly Packard was named Maggie Dixon Division I Rookie Coach of the Year by the WBCA.

Akron continued its dominance of MAC men's soccer with its 11 regular-season championship to go along with its sixth MAC Tournament title – both league records. The Zips were ranked as high as No. 2 during the season and reached the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament before falling to Northwestern, 1-0. Steve Zakuani, who helped guide the University of Akron men's soccer program to a record-setting campaign in 2008, was the first overall pick of the 2009 Major League Soccer Super Draft. Zakuani earned 2008 MAC Men's Soccer Player of the Year honors and was a finalist for the Hermann Trophy, which goes to the best men's soccer player in the country.

History of the MAC

Based in Cleveland since July 1999 following a 15-year stay in Toledo, Ohio, the MAC has established historic measurements in both football and men's and women's basketball since moving to Northeast Ohio.

The Mid-American Conference was founded as a five-school league on February 24, 1946 in Columbus, Ohio with Ohio, Butler, Cincinnati, Wayne State and Western Reserve admitted as charter members. The Mid-American Conference has 12 full-time schools and a 13th, Temple, for football only. Comprising the East Division is the University of Akron (joined in 1992), Bowling Green

State University (1952), University at Buffalo (1998), Kent State University (1951), Miami University (1947), Ohio University (1946) and Temple University (2007). The West Division members are Ball State University (1973), Central Michigan University (1971), Eastern Michigan University (1971), Northern Illinois University (1975-86, 1997), University of Toledo (1950) and Western Michigan University (1947).

In 1946 men's basketball was the first competitive sport in the MAC, which now sponsors a total 23 sports. Women's sports were brought into the conference's structure in 1980.

For men, championships (11) are sponsored in football, basketball, baseball, cross country, soccer, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, wrestling, golf and tennis.

For women, championships (12) are sponsored in basketball, softball, volleyball, cross country, field hockey, golf, soccer, swimming and diving, gymnastics, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and tennis.

Troy kicker Michael Taylor hit a 34-yard field goal with four seconds remaining as the Trojans came from behind to defeat Bowling Green 30-27.

With the score tied at 27-27 with just over two minutes to go and BGSU with the ball at the Troy-35 a tipped pass resulted in an interception that led to the eventual Troy winning FG.

In his first career start Schilz was 22-of-43 for 221 yards and a score. Willie Geter led the Falcons with 93 yards on the ground and Kamar Jorden had nine catches for 111 yards.

Bowling Green again tied the score on Wright's 23-yard kick with 2:11 left in the third but that was the final scoring until Taylor's field goal with four seconds left.

The Bowling Green State University football team dropped a 33-20 decision to the Golden Hurricane in Tulsa, Okla. The contest was a rematch of the 2008 GMAC Bowl.

Following a BG touchdown Tulsa scored 20 unanswered points. Dwayne Woods intercepted a pass to stop the drive, but Tulsa added another score late in the second quarter.

The Falcons looked to have scored as time expired in the first half but Jorden was called for pass interference in the Tulsa end zone to negate the score.

To start the second half Jorden once again looked to have scored on a 79-yard touchdown pass from Schilz, but a holding penalty wiped the seven points off the scoreboard.

The Falcon defense recorded four interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, in a 44-28 victory over Marshall.

Dwayne Woods rumbled 78 yards to the end zone with a second-quarter interception, while Jerry "Booboo" Gates scored on a 29-yard pick-six in the fourth quarter to close the scoring.

The Falcons had burst out to a 21-0 lead in the first half, but the Herd crept back. MU scored with less than one second remaining in the first half to cut BG's advantage to 28-14, and the visitors tied the game late in the third quarter at 28-28.

The Falcons had a team total of 158 yards in interception returns, not too far off the school record. The mark of 195 total yards in INT returns was set in the 1948 Toledo game.

 BG - Lorenzi 82 yard INT return (Pass failed), 10:14, 4th
 BG - Geter 48 yard pass from Pankratz (Wright kick), 7:12, 4th

In a wild game marred by 14 penalties and 11 turnovers, the Falcons and Bulls battled until Bryan Wright's 40-yard field goal attempt went just wide as time expired to give the Bulls a 28-26 win.

BGSU forced four interceptions, which included one defensive touchdown and recovered a pair of fumbles versus UB.

The Bulls outgained BGSU 441-176, and had the ball for 38:22, compared to the Falcons' 21:38.

 BG - Jorden 59 yard pass from Schilz (Schilz to Jones)

The BGSU football team fell 49-25 to the Ohio Bobcats.

The Falcons opened the game with a bang after Jovan Leacock forced a fumble on the Bobcats first play from scrimmage. Dwayne Woods picked up the loose ball and rumbled 28 yards, down to the OU 3-yardline, but BGSU was stuffed on four straight plays to negate the Falcons' first scoring chance.

After an OU three-and-out, BGSU once again marched inside the Ohio 10-yardline, but were once again unable to convert, forcing the Falcons into a Bryan Wright 22-yard field goal.

Ohio responded with a pair of touchdown drives in the first quarter and added two more in the second to take a 28-3 lead at the half.

Bowling Green was unable to complete a two-point conversion attempt with no time remaining and the Falcons lost to Temple 28-27. The Falcons had scored when Matt Schilz completed a pass to Calvin Wiley on the final play of regulation.

Bowling Green battled back from a 28-14 deficit to start the fourth quarter. The Falcons had a 17-play, 80-yard touchdown drive to start the fourth quarter. Bowling Green took possession back on its own 31-yard line with 1:47 to play in hopes of putting together one more scoring drive.

The Bowling Green defense was strong throughout, holding Temple to just 12 first downs, half as many as the Falcons had. BGSU got even stiffer in critical situations, holding the Owls to just 1-of-9 on third down conversion attempt.

The Bowling Green State University football team failed to break 100 yards of total offense until the fourth quarter and held the ball offensively for only 25 minutes as the Kent State Golden Flashes won only their second game in their last 18 visits to Bowling Green, 30-6.

The Falcons had an early opportunity when the Flashes fumbled on the first drive of the game. However, BG lost the ball on downs. After the Falcons forced a punt, freshman Matt Schilz was intercepted by Brian Lainhart, who returned the pick to the Falcons' 15.

BG's defense held firm and forced KSU to settle for a field goal. On the ensuing kickoff, Jerry "Boo Boo" Gates ran strong up the middle but appeared to be tackled at the 44 yard line. Gates never touched the ground, though, and when whistles didn't blow, Gates took the ball and raced to the end zone for a Falcons' touchdown.

The extra point was blocked, but the Falcons led 6-3.

KSU scored the next 27 points.

Bowling Green's Jordan Hopgood scored a touchdown with 21 seconds remaining to give the Falcons a 17-14 win in Mount Pleasant, Mich., over the Central Michigan Chippewas.

It was the Falcons' first win when scoring less than 20 points since a 17-0 win at Ohio back in 2001.

With the Falcons trailing 14-10, Schilz took over with 2:26 remaining and led the Orange and Brown down to the Chippewas 35 before finding Kamar Jorden down the middle for a 32-yard reception to set up first-and-goal with just over a minute to go. Hopgood would score two plays later from 1-yard out to snap the Falcons' five-game losing streak.

The story of the night was the Falcon defense. Bowling Green allowed just 14 points (six coming on a pick-6) and 231 total yards. CMU was held to just 132 yards through the air, an offense that came into the game averaging 282 yards passing per game. The Falcon defense forced three turnovers, held Central Michigan to 4-of-12 on third down and had 12 tackles for loss (six sacks).

Chris Jones had six tackles, five tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks in the win.

The Bowling Green State University Falcons fell 24-21 to the Miami Redhawks on the final play of a game dominated by weather more than anything else.

The game began with clear skies, but as the evening progressed, fog developed over the field. The weather got progressively worse until it became a thick soup during the fourth quarter, making the field almost impossible to see except on ground level.

Miami (6-4, 5-1 MAC) used a strong rushing attack to build a 21-7 lead over the Falcons (2-8, 1-5 MAC) by the end of the third quarter. Bowling Green capitalized on a turnover and a long Schilz-to-Jorden pass to tie the game in the fourth quarter.

However, a Schilz interception with just over two minutes to play put the ball on the Falcon side of the field for Miami, and the Redhawks drove for a game-winning 33-yard field goal as time expired.

The final-play loss was the fourth such defeat suffered by Bowling Green this season.

The Bowling Green State University football team gave up 19 points in the first eight minutes of the first quarter and the Falcons were unable to fight back in a 33-14 loss to rival Toledo.

Calvin Wiley's 13 yard touchdown reception early in the second quarter cut Toledo's lead to 12 points at 19-7 but the Rockets scored just 19 seconds later to extend the lead again.

The game went to the half with a 26-7 score but the Falcons got a 71-yard punt return for a touchdown from Eugene Cooper less than five minutes into the second half to make it 26-14. Toledo was forced to punt on its next possession but a Matt Schilz pass was intercepted to end the threat.

BGSU dropped a 41-7 decision to WMU to close the 2010 season.

Western Michigan scored the first 27 points of the game, taking a 27-0 lead into the half.

Kamar Jorden caught a 19 yard score to open the third quarter, but BGSU could get no closer.

Matt Schilz was 19-of-31 for 282 yards, while Willie Geter posted 87 yards on the ground in his final game as a Falcon.

BGSU HISTORY

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

Scott Mruczkowski and Mike Thaler celebrate the Falcons' 28-24 Motor City Bowl win over Northwestern in 2003. It marked the first-time in MAC history that a league school ever faced a Big Ten opponent in the post-season.

Since Frederick G. Beyerman, an instructor in the physical education department and the first athletic director, announced in July, 1919 that Bowling Green State Normal College would field an intercollegiate football team, a rich tradition has developed.

From that very first team, to the first squad to go unbeaten in 1928, to the first perfect record of the 1959 national college division champions, to, most recently, back-to-back seasons of nationally ranked division IA football.

From former head coach Warren Steller, to Max Minnich, the first BGSU player to be drafted by a professional team, to Fred Durig, the first All-America selection, to legendary head coach Doyt Perry, to Paul Miles, the only football player ever to have his jersey retired, to Dave Preston, the career rushing leader, to record-setting quarterback Brian McClure, to head coach Dave Clawson, to Freddie Barne a 2009 Biletnikoff Finalist and NCAA record holder for catches in a season (155) the Bowling Green State University football program has a tradition as rich as any in the Mid-American Conference, and many programs nationally.

Since 19 of the 30 males enrolled at Normal College banded together to form that first team, many different people, players, and games have combined to mold the lore of football at BGSU.

The following paragraphs will touch on many of the people and games which carved the Falcon football history.

The program got off to a rocky start losing its first seven games played.

Franklin Skibbie scored the first touchdown with BG's only points in the 10-6 loss to Findlay in the 1920 season opener.

That team would post a 7-0 win over Kent State Normal College (Kent State) in the season finale to record the first win.

The 1921 squad was the first to win a conference title capturing the Northwest Conference championship with wins over Defiance, Findlay, and Toledo. BG posted a shutout of Findlay, scoring a school-record 151 points in one of the most talked-about games in school history. In the season opener against Kent State, played behind what is now Ridge Street School, the Falcons played possibly the quietest game in school history when all fans were prohibited from making noise because of an illness in the neighborhood.

The following season, BG held its first homecoming game on Nov. 4, 1922, which was played at the Fairgrounds. Bowling Green and Toledo battled to a 6-6 deadlock.

After having a different coach in each of its first five seasons, Warren Steller was selected to coach the 1924 squad, the beginning of a very successful 11-year tenure, the second-longest in school history. Steller was the first BGSU head coach to have an assistant when Paul Landis was hired in 1925.

Brian McClure is one of only two players in MAC history (both from BG) to earn league MVP honors twice.

Led by Chet Chapman, the first BG player to earn first team All-Ohio honors, the 1928 team posted the first unbeaten record while allowing just 18 points in seven games.

In 1936, the federal government offered to help Bowling Green financially in the construction of a new football stadium and the Trustees accepted the offer. University Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 23, 1937 and served as the home of Falcon football until 1966 when Doyt L. Perry Stadium was built. University Stadium was located in what is now the center of campus directly west of Jerome Library.

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

Urban Meyer served as head coach for the Falcons in 2001 and 2002 and guided BGSU to a 17-6 record and a No. 16 ranking in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll in 2002.

In 1941, Robert Whittaker was named the head coach at Bowling Green after compiling an 11-year record of 89-19-2 at Sandusky High School. Whittaker's first of his 14 teams (the longest tenure in school history) tied Case Western Reserve for the Ohio Conference title and was thought to be one of the best teams ever, scoring 173 while allowing just 40.

After back-to-back losing seasons in 1953 and 1954, Doyt Perry began his legendary career as the Falcon head coach in 1955 and made an immediate impact. BG posted a 7-1-1 record, scoring 224 points while allowing only 53. This came on the heels of a 2-7 record the previous season.

Perry, whose teams never lost more than two games in any of his 10 seasons, led his 1959 squad to the first perfect record in school history at 9-0-0. In the process, the Falcons were named the mythical small college national champions by the Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club.

BG's closest game that season was a Mid-American Conference victory at Ohio University by a 13-9 count to wrap up the perfect season and national honor.

The following season, BG came within one game of repeating as national champions losing only a 14-7 decision to OU at home as the Bobcats claimed top national honors.

In 1961, Bowling Green played in its first bowl game, the Mercy Bowl at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The game against Fresno State was played to raise money to help defray the expenses of the families of 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team who perished in a plane crash shortly after takeoff from Toledo

One of the most significant wins in school history was the 17-13 victory over 18th-ranked Purdue in 1972. A fourth quarter field goal by Don Taylor was the difference for Coach Don Nehlen and his Falcons.

Express Airport after a 1960 game against BG.

The game netted $170,000 for the memorial fund.

The arrival of a skinny, much-heralded quarterback from Ravenna, Ohio in 1982 signaled the beginning of an 11-year period in which the Falcons would make four bowl appearances.

The quarterback was Brian McClure and all he would do in the next four seasons was lead the Falcons to a 34-12 record, a 19-1 record at home, two bowl games, and become only the second quarterback in NCAA history to pass for over 10,000 yards.

He became the starter in the third game of his freshman season, and despite missing the last two games of the regular season, he became the first freshman to be named a first-team all-league quarterback.

On Oct. 24 and 25, 2003, ESPN's College Gameday made its home south of Doyt L. Perry Stadium. That marked the first time in MAC history that the nation's most watched college football pre-game show visited a league venue.

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

Paul Miles is second on the BG career rushing list with 3,238 yards while he is also the only football player to have his number retired. At the time of his graduation, he was only the third running back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons.

He would rewrite the BG and MAC record books before his career was over, setting five NCAA records as well. McClure still holds numerous school and MAC records.

In 1991, Gary Blackney was tabbed as the 14th head football coach, and much like the arrival of McClure, he made an immediate impact on the program.

In his first season, he took a team which compiled a 3-5-2 mark the previous season and molded them into an 11-1 squad, going undefeated in the MAC while winning the program's first bowl game.

The following season was more of the same as the Falcons were again perfect in league play and a win over Nevada in the first Las Vegas Bowl made it back-to-back bowl victories. The 1993 squad would extend the conference winning streak to a league-record 19 games while going unbeaten in the first 22 MAC games of Blackney's tenure.

Urban Meyer took over the reins of the Falcon program in 2001 and engineered the top turnaround in Division IA. The Falcons opened the Meyer era with an impressive road win at Missouri and followed that up with wins over Buffalo and Temple, surpassing their victory total of the previous year.

BGSU posted its first winning season since 1994 when it reeled off three straight wins to end the season. The Falcons' 43-42 victory at Northwestern made them the first MAC team to ever defeat three teams from BCS conferences in a single season. The Falcons ended the season six days later with a 56-21 pasting of MAC Champion Toledo.

In 2002, BGSU roared to an 8-0 start including wins over Missouri and Kansas and were ranked in both the AP and Coaches polls at the same time for the first time in school history.

Meyer's offensive coordinator, Gregg Brandon, took over as head coach in December, 2002, and guided the Falcons to their first-ever MAC West title and Motor City Bowl Championship and finished ranked in the top 25 (No. 23) in both major polls at the end of a season for the first-time in school history.

One player who links Blackney, Meyer and Brandon was All-American quarterback Josh Harris. The Westerville, Ohio native came to BGSU with the intention of sitting out the 2000 season as a redshirt, but was pressed into duty when injuries decimated the Falcon backfield.

Serving as a running back and kick returner for the bulk of the season, Harris showed signs of greatness in glimpses and even started his first career game on ESPN against Toledo.

Meyer took over the program the following season and inserted Harris into the starting lineup for good in the ninth game of the season and watched his team win 11 straight games over the next two seasons and earn its first national ranking since 1985.

The Motor City Bowl MVP guided the Falcons to a 6-1 record in three seasons as a starter against BCS competition.

The 2003 season gave BGSU its highest national profile and elevated the program to new heights. Longtime Falcon fans have viewed the program's 1972 win over the Boilermakers as one of the biggest in BGSU history.

Well, lightning strikes twice. While Purdue entered the day with a No. 16 national ranking and visions of BCS aspirations dancing in their heads, the Falcons were able to keep it close and the Falcons converted twice on fourth down, capped by a 32-yard miracle pass-and-catch from Harris to Charles Sharon with 2:08 remaining to post a 27-26 win.

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

All-American quarterback Josh Harris takes a 48-yard TD pass from Cole Magner in the Falcons' 2003 win over Toledo. Harris was responsible for more than 100 TDs during his career.

The Falcons were back into the national spotlight with a No. 23 ranking by the AP and a showdown with undefeated and No. 12 Northern Illinois showed so much promise that ESPN's College Gameday made Bowling Green its home for the weekend. For the first time in 20 years, Doyt Perry Stadium was sold out and the game was shown on ESPN2.

All-American Janssen Patton set an NCAA record by picking off three passes in a game for the third time in his career and Harris directed the BGSU offense flawlessly as the Falcons prevailed 34-18 in just the second-ever regular season meeting between two nationally-ranked MAC schools. The Falcons would spend the next seven weeks in both national polls and were ranked 24th in the final BCS standings.

All-American quarterback Omar Jacobs set an NCAA record by throwing 41 TD passes with just four interceptions in 2004. He was named MVP of the 2004 GMAC Bowl as BGSU defeated Memphis, 52-35.

In what would be the most meaningful game in the history of the BGSU/Toledo rivalry, a national TV audience and another sellout crowd would witness the first meeting in which the two schools played the final game of the regular season for an outright championship.

The Falcons rallied in the fourth quarter in front of a second home sellout crowd to post a 31-23 win over arch rival Toledo. That would secure the Falcons' first-ever MAC Championship game appearance at home against No. 12 Miami.

Tyler Sheehan finished his career with a 64.7 percent completion percentage, best in school history, while adding 10,117 yards and 70 touchdowns in three years as the Falcons' starting QB.

In the MAC's first-ever battle with the Big Ten in post-season play, Harris earned MVP honors completing a bowl record 38 passes as the Falcons posted a 28-24 win over Northwestern. The victory allowed the Falcons to finish a season in both the AP and Coaches polls for the first time in school history.

In 2004, BGSU once again enjoyed the national spotlight when they opened the season on the road at Oklahoma in a game that was televised by ABC. While the Falcons fell 40-24 to a team which would play for the national title, a new era was ushered in that day.

Sophomore quarterback Omar Jacobs, in his first collegiate start, would hold his own that day with Heisman Trophy winner Jason White. Jacobs would go on to earn All-American honors and MAC Offensive Player of the Year recognition after throwing for a national best 41 TD passes. He completed 309-of-462 passes for a BGSU record 4,002 yards.

Following a 1-2 start, BGSU erupted for a 70-16 victory at Temple, won their next seven games, and were ranked by both AP and ESPN for the third straight year.

Lee Corso (left) and Kirk Herbstreit were part of the ESPN team which broadcast the 2003 MAC Championship game from Doyt Perry Stadium.

BGSU HISTORY • YEAR-BY-YEAR RECORDS

BGSU would earn its second straight bowl berth and played Memphis in the GMAC Bowl. In its first game ever against a Conference USA opponent, Jacobs would throw for five TDs and 365 yards and the Falcon defense would limit the Tigers to seven points in the second half as BGSU won 52-35. The Falcons were one of a MAC record five teams selected to participate in a post-season contest.

BGSU began the 2005 season ranked 23rd by Sports Illustrated and Jacobs was featured in ESPN The Magazine.

In 2007, the Falcons were picked to finish fifth in the Mid-American Conference East preseason polls, but following a 32-31 win over Minnesota to open the season, the Falcons rolled to a MAC East co-Division Championship, going 6-2, and advancing to their third bowl appearance in five seasons, finishing 2007 with an 8-5 record.

Like 2007, in 2008 the Falcons opened the season with a bang, downing No. 25 Pittsburgh, 27-17, the Falcons' first win over a ranked team since 2003. The same season the Orange and Brown hosted Minnesota, the first time in school history that a Big Ten team ventured into Doyt Perry Stadium. BGSU finished the 2008 season with a 6-6 record, ushering in a new era with the hiring of Dave Clawson on Dec. 12, 2008.

Clawson's first year will be a memorable one, opening the year with a 31-14 win versus Troy, while finishing 6-2 in the MAC and advancing to the 2009 Humanitarian Bowl in Boise, Idaho. Clawson helped lead an offense that helped Freddie Barnes record 155 catches in 13 games, a new NCAA record, breaking the old mark of 142, held by Manny Hazard (Houston) since 1989.

Barnes' top moment came on Oct. 10, 2009 at Kent State when he caught 22 passes for 278 yards, one catch shy of the all-time NCAA record. Barnes rode the NCAA record all the way to a Fred Biletnikoff Award finalist, given to the nation's top wide receiver.

All-American wide receiver Freddie Barnes caught 155 passes in 2009, smashing the previous NCAA mark (142) for catches in a season.

In a one-time game to help defray the expenses (burial and medical) of families of the 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team who perished in a plane crash, Oct. 29, 1960, shortly after takeoff from Toledo Express Airport, Bowling Green and Fresno State, the undefeated champion of the California Collegiate Athletic Association, met at the historic Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Playing before its largest crowd in school history, the Falcons, six-point favorites, were guilty, uncharacteristically, of six turnovers, which was the difference in the game. BG's defense, which was ranked fourth in the nation, yielded 468 yards, 196 more than it had given up to any opponent during the season. Quarterbacks Beau Carter and Jon Anabo were thorns in BG's side all day passing for 368 yards and two touchdowns. Carter ran for two scores, also.

BG scored its only points early in the second stanza on the two-yard run by Ray Bell which was set up on a long pass play between Larry Smith and quarterback Jim Potts.

BG fumbled on its next two possessions with FSU turning the second miscue into a touchdown on a long pass play. Bowling Green did have a pass dropped in the end zone as the first half ended which would have given them the lead. Fresno State then scored 1:44 apart midway through the third period to put the game away, the second score set up by a fumbled snap on an attempted punt. The contest netted $170,000 for the memorial fund which aided the survivors and the relatives of the victims of the plane crash. Cal Poly SLO had played at Bowling Green the afternoon before the crash.

After a full week of events leading up to the meeting with the Pacific Coast Athletic Association champion Fresno State, the Falcons entered the game against the Bulldogs a two-touchdown underdog.

The Falcons also had to contend with a partisan sea of red squeezed into Bulldog Stadium, the home of Fresno State.

But, the Falcons drew first blood converting a Jac Tomasello interception on the final play of the first quarter into the first touchdown of the game, a Chip Otten four-yard run capping a 48-yard drive. The Falcons took a 14-0 lead to the locker room after driving 73 yards on their next possession. Sophomore quarterback Brian McClure connected with John Meek on the scoring play.

BG looked to be in the driver's seat after McClure connected with Shawn Potts from five yards out in the third stanza. But, Fresno State answered BG's score with their first of the contest later in the quarter.

Bowling Green came right back as Potts picked up a fumble by receiver Greg Taylor at the five-yard line and ran it in to put the Falcons back up by three touchdowns.

With Fresno State pinned back on its own 20-yard line and facing a third-and-ten, a Falcon stop might have put the final nail in the Fresno State coffin. But, FSU gained 15 yards on the third-down play and the comeback was on.

With future NFL receiver Stephone Paige running and catching a pass for a touchdown, FSU closed to within six points with three minutes left.

This third quarter fumble recovery by Stu Tolle set up the third Falcon touchdown giving the Falcons a 21-0 lead over Fresno State in the 1982 California Bowl.

BG used up just 1:05 of the clock on its next possession and FSU moved 45 yards in eight plays with Jeff Tedford finding Vince Wesson over the middle with 11 seconds left. Scott Darrow's PAT was the deciding point.

BG gained just 26 yards on nine plays in the fourth quarter while FSU gained 220 of its 453 yards in the final 15 minutes.

An indication of what was ahead for the Falcons in the game came early in the first quarter when, trailing 7-0, they drove to the Bulldog one-yard line where they fumbled the ball away in the end zone, the first of five on the day and the same number they had committed in the first 11 games of the season. Fresno State would score the next 37 points before BG would hit paydirt.

Not even being a double-digit underdog against Fresno State could keep the Falcons from completing its storybook season under first-year head coach Gary Blackney.

And the script for this game was all Hollywood.

The first quarter would have led the fans to believe it might take 40 or 50 points to win the game as the Falcons scored touchdowns on their first two possessions and the Bulldogs would get one of those back before the quarter was over.

The scoring continued early in the second stanza as BG's Erik White and Mark Szlachcic hooked up for a second time. But, FSU came right back on their next possession with Anthony Daigle running 57 yards to cut the deficit in half going to the lockerroom.

The defenses took over in the third quarter, each allowing just 65 yards total offense. Late in the quarter, FSU placekicker Derek Mahoney missed a 26-yard field goal, the most significant scoring opportunity of the quarter.

BG scored early in the final stanza moving 80 yards after the missed field goal to build another 14-point lead.

FSU came right back to score, driving 71 yards as quarterback Mark Barsotti completed five-of-six passes, connecting with tight end Marty Thompson from five yards out.

After three changes of possession, FSU started the final drive of the game from their one-yard line, after an interception, with 2:29 remaining.

FSU used its last time out with 24 seconds left and the Bulldogs just nine yards away from the needed touchdown. After a running play for six yards and two incomplete passes, the final play of the game would determine the outcome with three seconds left.

The BG defense rose to the occasion covering all FSU receivers and Barsotti threw incomplete with BG linebacker Kevin O'Brien pressuring. It was BG's first bowl win.

BG won its 11th game making Blackney one of only three coaches in NCAA history to win 11 games in their first season as a head coach.

In the inaugural Las Vegas Bowl, which replaced the California Bowl, the Falcons faced the high-powered offense of the University of Nevada.

In a game in which the punting game took center stage, the Falcons won the first half and Nevada the second half, but a late BG touchdown proved to be the difference.

The Falcons scored on their first four possessions to grab a 28-3 halftime lead. BG had 267 first-half yards to just 116 for the Wolfpack as they had an 18-6 edge in first downs.

In the second half, it was Nevada quarterback Chris Vargas' turn. He had engineered six Nevada comeback victories in three years coming off the bench, including an NCAA-record 35-point comeback against Weber State.

BGSU HISTORY • BOWL GAMES

Nevada scored three touchdowns in the third quarter with punts of five and seven yards by BG setting up the first two scores. The Wolfpack's third score was set up by a high snap from center on a BG punt.

Nevada finally took the lead with 12:41 left in the game and looked to possibly put the game away with a field goal with 7:13 left, ending their run of 31 unanswered points.

Bowling Green then moved to the Nevada six-yard line before turning the ball over on downs. After holding the Wolfpack to one first down, Nevada punter Steve Lester had the center snap go through his hands setting up the Falcons at the Wolfpack 15-yard line with 1:45 remaining.

A 12-yard Erik White to Mark Szlachcic connection on first down put the Falcons on the three-yard line. After two runs and a pass did not net any yardage, White found Dave Hankins alone in the back of the end zone on fourth down with 22 seconds left. Placekicker Brian Leaver made the PAT for the winning points and BG's second consecutive bowl win.

Northwestern took away Bowling Green's running game. So Josh Harris beat the Wildcats through the air. Harris passed for 386 yards and three touchdowns to lead Bowling Green to a 28-24 victory over Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl. It was the first postseason meeting ever between schools from the MAC and Big Ten.

Bowling Green took the lead for good on Harris' 3-yard touchdown pass to Cole Magner with 4:06 left. Harris, who also ran for a TD, set a Motor City Bowl and BGSU record for completions with 38 in 50 attempts. It also Bowling Green quarterback Josh Harris (left) was named co-MVP of the 2003 Motor City Bowl after leading the Falcons to a 28-24 comeback win over Northwestern, giving the MAC its first-ever postseason win over a Big Ten foe. Harris set a Motor City Bowl record by completing 38-of-50 passes for 386 yards and three TDs. Harris finished his career with 7,503 yards passing, 2,473 yards rushing and 104 TDs responsible for. Falcon head coach Gregg Brandon (right) led all NCAA IA first-year head coaches in victories by leading the Falcons to an 11-3 record.

marked the third fourth-quarter rally for BGSU against a Big Ten squad (Northwestern in 2001 and Purdue in 2003). Magner also set a game record for catches, finishing with 12 for 97 yards and two touchdowns.

Jason Wright ran for 237 yards on 21 carries and finished with 336 all-purpose yards for Northwestern. He had a 77-yard TD run - the second-longest run in Motor City Bowl history - to give the Wildcats a 17-7 lead early in the third quarter and an 88-yard kickoff return early in the fourth to set up Noah Herron's 2-yard touchdown run that made it 24-21.

Bowling Green used two 80-yard scoring drives to take a 21-17 lead early in the fourth. Harris threw a 7-yard TD pass to Magner, and put the Falcons on top with an 11-yarder to Steve Sanders.

Northwestern opened the scoring on Herron's 40-yard fourth-down run in the first quarter, and made it 10-0 on Brian Huffman's 31-yard field goal. Bowling Green answered with a 67-yard drive, capped by Harris' 4-yard run.

Omar Jacobs went from Bowling Green's question mark to the Mid-American Conference's latest star quarterback. Jacobs capped a marvelous sophomore season by passing for 365 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Falcons to a 52-35 victory over Memphis in the GMAC Bowl.

The Falcons (9-3) turned a shootout into a blowout after leading 35-28 at halftime to win their fourth consecutive bowl game. Jacobs got them started with four first-half touchdown passes - two apiece to Charles Sharon and Steve Sanders helped carry them the rest of the way. Pope ran 28 times for 151 yards and a pair of 1-yard touchdowns. He also caught a 13-yard pass for the only score of the third quarter. The Tigers (8-4), playing in back-to-back bowl games for the first time, couldn't keep up with the nation's No. 4 offense, which totaled 558 total yards.

Jacobs, whose 41 touchdown passes led the nation and set a Mid-American Conference record, completed 26-of-44 passes with an interception to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

At halftime, the teams seemed poised to take aim at the 2001 GMAC Bowl, the highest scoring bowl game in history with 125 combined points for Marshall and East Carolina. The offenses stopped themselves early in the third quarter. Jacobs threw only his fourth interception of the season to give the Tigers the ball at Bowling Green's 41. Memphis tried to go for it on fourth down but was twice penalized for having 12 men on the field. Bowling Green made it 42-28 on the ensuing possession with Pope slipping underneath for a 13-yard touchdown catch on third-and-7. The Tigers then squandered another trip across midfield when a scrambling Wimprine fumbled the ball and Bowling Green's Mike Thaler recovered 31 yards behind the line of scrimmage to set up a field goal. Even the weather

The Falcons enjoy the post-game celebration following their 52-35 victory over Memphis in the 2004 GMAC Bowl. Game MVP Omar Jacobs threw a bowl-record five TD tosses.

Hurricane Paul Smith and the nation's top-rated offense turned a little charity into a lot of history in the GMAC Bowl.

Smith had his NCAA-record 14th consecutive 300-yard passing game, and Tulsa converted four fumble recoveries into first-half touchdowns on the way to a 63-7 win over Bowling Green in the 2007 GMAC Bowl.

With all that help, the Golden Hurricane (10-4) ran up a 35-0 halftime lead and capped coach Todd Graham's first season by reaching 10 wins for the first time since 1991.

Smith passed for 312 yards and five touchdowns. He broke the record of 13 300-yard efforts in a row he shared with BYU's Ty Detmer, whose streak stretched over the 1989 and 1990 seasons.

He and Tarrion Adams joined Houston's David Klingler and Chuck Weatherspoon as the NCAA's only 5,000-yard passing and 1,000-yard rushing tandems.

Tulsa outgained Bowling Green (8-5) 562-229 in total yards.

Adams scored touchdowns running, passing and receiving before halftime and ran for 112 yards. Trae Johnson caught two scoring passes.

Bowling Green, which had won four consecutive bowl games, lost three fumbles in its own territory in the first quarter and never recovered.

Quarterback Tyler Sheehan was helped off the field with a left ankle injury with 24 seconds left in the first half and didn't return. Sheehan passed for 141 yards and ran for another 21.

Still throwing the ball despite the large lead late in the fourth quarter, the Golden Hurricanes became the first team in NCAA history to have a 5,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers. Smith came in needing 247 yards along with 45 yards receiving from Charles Clay, who reached the milestone with several catches midway through the fourth quarter and finished with 11 for 69 yards.

The Mid-American Conference had won five of six GMAC Bowls before the Falcons' fall.

Down 42-0, Bowling Green got on the board when Roger Williams scored on a 78-yard kick return early in the third quarter for the Falcons' only points. It was the first kickoff return for a touchdown in the history of the GMAC Bowl.

Despite the loss the 2007 season was a very impressive one for the Orange and Brown, who finished the year with an 8-5 record, matching Central Michigan for the most overall wins in the conference.

The Falcons, who were picked to finish fifth in the East Division, finished MAC play with a 6-2 record, finishing in a three-way tie for tops among the East.

Roger Williams scores on a 78 yard kickoff return, the first-ever kickoff return for a touchdown in the history of the GMAC Bowl.

The Bowling Green State University football team got a 51-yard touchdown from Freddie Barnes with 32 seconds remaining to take a 42-35 lead but surrendered a late touchdown with four seconds to go, as well as a two-point conversion, to fall 43-42 to the Idaho Vandals in the 2009 Rody's Humanitarian Bowl in Boise, Idaho.

BGSU rallied back from a 28-14 and 35-28 deficits to lead with 32 seconds to go but the Vandals drove 66 yards on three plays, including a 50-yard strike to open the drive to get within one at 42-41. After a timeout the Vandals elected to go for two, converting in the back of the endzone for the winning score.

The Falcons opened the scoring with senior quarterback Tyler Sheehan hooking up with Biletnikoff finalist Freddie Barnes on a 35-yard touchdown. Sheehan would call Barnes' number 16 more times, finishing with a Humanitarian Bowl record 17 receptions for 219 yards (both Humanitarian Bowl records), while Sheehan completed 33-of-47 passes for 387 yards and four touchdowns.

Barnes would finish the season with 155 receptions, smashing the all-time NCAA mark of 142, held by Manny Hazzard (Houston) since 1989. For his efforts he was named BGSU's Rody's Humanitarian Bowl Most Valuable Player.

Following a Vandal touchdown junior Willie Geter scampered 59 yards for a score to spot the Orange and Brown a 14-7 lead at the end of one quarter. It was Geter's second longest run of the season.

Neither team would get back on the scoreboard until Idaho's Nathan Enderle connected with wide receiver Eric Greenwood on a seven-yard fade route with 19 seconds remaining in the first half to finish the first half at 14 apiece.

Idaho started the second half off with a bang, scoring a pair of touchdowns in a four minute span to go up 28-14 with 5:30 minutes to go in the third quarter, a spot Bowling Green has seen before an answered. Much like the contest with Kent State and Buffalo, BGSU would have to find a way to rally from a double-digit deficit, a deficit they would erase in a hurry.

First, Sheehan connected with fellow classmate Jimmy Scheidler on a 15-yard touchdown with just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter and then found Barnes on an out-route at 12:15 in the fourth to knot the score at 28 apiece.

The Vandals would answer back with a 74-yard drive to once again take the lead, this time, 35-28 with 8:32 to go in the game.

A two-yard Geter touchdown, his second of the game, pushed the score to 35-35 and following a stop by the BGSU defense Sheehan and the Falcons marched 80 yards to take a 42-35 lead with 32 seconds remaining before the final winning drive by Idaho.

DOYT L. PERRY

1988 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee

The year 1988 will be fondly remembered by many who are associated with the football program at BGSU. That year Doyt L. Perry, a former player, coach and administrator was recognized by the National Football Foundation with its top honor, induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Perry traveled to New York in December of 1988 for the Foundation's Hall of Fame dinner and was officially enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in June, 1989, in ceremonies held at Kings Island, Ohio.

Perry's association with BGSU dates back to the 1920s when he lettered nine times in three sports (football, basketball and baseball). The Croton, Ohio native received his degree in 1932. He began coaching on the high school level before becoming an assistant at Ohio State in 1951.

Perry returned to his alma mater in 1955, leading the football program to a 77-11-5 (.855) record over the next 11 years. His teams won five Mid-American Conference titles and one national college division championship in 1959. Perry's winning percentage ranks fifth on the all-time NCAA list.

Perry, who retired from coaching in 1964 to become BGSU's athletic director, developed such outstanding coaches as Bill Mallory, Don Nehlen, Larry Smith, and the late Dave McClain. Many more of Perry's former assistants and players have gone on to enjoy success in the coaching profession.

Perry passed away in February of 1992. At his memorial service former Michigan coach Bo Schembechler, an assistant on Perry's 1955 staff, said, "I don't believe I can name a coach, anywhere, anytime, anyhow, who did it better than Doyt Perry."

A documentary on Perry's career was released in May of 1998. It was produced by WBGU-TV.

WHY ORANGE AND BROWN?

Orange and brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a women's hat on a bus to nearby Toledo, Ohio. He liked the brown and orange color combination. So, too, did former Cleveland Browns' head coach Paul Brown. Following a trip to BGSU in the 1940s, Brown used the colors for his All-America Conference team.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you'll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

FIGHT SONG

Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Fight for victory,
Show your spirit, make them fear it
Fight for 'ol Bee Gee.

Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Make the contest keen,
Shout out the fame of our mighty name
And win for Bowling Green!

AY ZIGGY ZOOMBA

Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Ze
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zi
Roll along you BG warriors
Roll along and win for BGSU

Ay Ziggy Zoomba is Bowling Green's unofficial fight song. Gil Fox, an Air Force bombardier in World War II stationed in Italy, brought a loose translation of a Zulu war chant back with him, and since its introduction in 1946 to a campus spirit assembly, it has kept its place in BGSU history. The Falcon football team traditionally sings "Ay Ziggy Zoomba" after each victory.

RECORD BOOK • SPIRIT & TRADITION

Retired Jersey

The only football jersey ever retired at Bowling Green is #29. It was worn by Paul Miles from 1971-73. Miles rushed for 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns in his career and was a three-time first team All-MAC selection. He was just the third back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three consecutive seasons.

Frieda & Freddie Falcon

Frieda and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is "beheaded" at the last home basketball and hockey game. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added for the 1979-80 athletic year.

Why The Falcons?

The 2011-2012 athletic year marks the 84th anniversary of Bowling Green's nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake '23 suggested the nickname after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the Sentinel Tribune in Bowling Green at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size."

PEACE PIPE AWARD

The Peace Pipe is a traveling award that goes to the winner of the annual gridiron battle between Bowling Green and Toledo. The Peace Pipe tradition actually began on the basketball court during the 1947-48 season. At that time, the teams exchanged a six-foot long wooden peace pipe. The original basketball Peace Pipe disappeared, so, in 1980, the Peace Pipe was reinstated for football with former UT football player Frank Kralik creating the present trophy. Today's Peace Pipe is a smaller version of the original pipe, resting atop a trophy.

ANNIVERSARY AWARD

The Anniversary Award is a traveling award that goes to the winner of the football game between Bowling Green and Kent State. Established in 1985 by the respective alumni departments at BGSU and KSU, the Anniversary Award commemorates the founding of BGSU and KSU in the year 1910.

RECORD BOOK • DOYT L. PERRY STADIUM

Doyt L. Perry Stadium has added lights, a new scoreboard, FieldTurf, some chairback seating and the Sebo Athletic Center since 2001

Doyt L. Perry Stadium, with its 24,000 seating capacity, is celebrating its 43rd year as the home of Bowling Green State University football. In 2001 permanent lighting was installed at the venue and home attendance doubled. In 2004, a new scoreboard with video capabilities was installed and new FieldTurf and the Sebo Athletic Center were added for the 2007 season.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Stadium had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982 (Those bleachers have been removed, to give way for the Sebo Athletic Center, giving BGSU the 24,000 current capacity). One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Stadium set the conference record for single-game attendance.

On Oct. 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Stadium for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out Toledo at Perry Stadium in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green's season attendance to an average of 22,422. In 1994, BG fans bettered the mark of 1985 as 114,802 fans, an average of 22,960, attended the five home games.

In 2003, Falcon faithful attended sellout games against Northern Illinois and Toledo as ESPN broadcast three games live from the facility and brought its weekly college football show, Gameday, to Bowling Green. That year, BGSU averaged more than 21,000 per home game.

Perry Stadium is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes locker rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side is the home of the new BGSU Golf Training Center, filled with a 1,200 square foot putting green, locker rooms and hitting bays.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. The Stadium Club's 106 theatre-type seats provide loyal BGSU fans with the best view of the game. The President's Box, located at the top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for the University President and her guests, along with other supporters of Falcon football.

The construction of elevators on both sides of the stadium, completed in early 1998, has made the stadium more accessible for all fans. Renovations to all boxes on both sides and the stadium club have taken place over the last few years making for a more "fan-friendly" atmosphere. Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on Oct. 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won over 66 percent of their home games, compiling a 140-68-6 record in the 214 games played at Perry Stadium.

Perry Stadium is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, Perry is fifth all-time behind Bob Reade (Augustana), Knute Rockne (Notre Dame), Frank Leahy (Notre Dame), and Larry Kehres (Mount Union) in winning percentage among coaches with at least 10 years of service on the collegiate level. Perry served as the BGSU athletic director for seven years (1965-71) after stepping down as football coach.

The football facility at BGSU was formally dedicated as Doyt L. Perry Stadium on Sept. 26, 1992. Present for the ceremony were (l-r) Perry's children D.L., Judy Perry McClain, David and Doyt's wife Loretta. They are joined by John Mahaney, former president of the Board of Trustees, former University President Paul J. Olscamp and former Athletic Director Jack Gregory.
